The College campus is always open to visitors. The McCabe Library is open to visitors during business hours. Check the website for summer hours. The pre-proposal tour will include special collection spaces that are not open for public access.

- If proposing consultants or their sub-consultants want to visit special collection spaces as part of this proposal process, please contact Library Director, Anne Houston to schedule a time when consultants or subconsultants would like to tour the special collections space. Send her the time (or range of times) and day you propose visiting.
    - Email: ahousto3@swarthmore.edu
    - Call: (610) 328-8553
- If proposing consultants or their sub-consultants want to visit the roof or basement mechanical rooms, please contact Facilities' Tom Cochrane via email: tcochra1@swarthmore.edu

General Comments

This document and all attachments and hyperlinks are considered part of this Request for Proposal (RFP). Swarthmore College (also referred to as “Swarthmore” or “the College” in this document) reserves the right to modify any part of this document at its discretion. This document outlines the expectations and requirements Swarthmore places on the respondent (referred to as “Proposer,” “firm,” or “Consultant”) in this Request for Proposal.

Swarthmore College is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer and does not discriminate against any individual because of their race, color, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, disability, or veteran status. All College suppliers, vendors, consultants and contractors are reminded to take appropriate action in meeting their equal employment opportunity obligations under federal, state and local law and in doing business with Swarthmore College. If the College discovers that one of its suppliers, vendors, consultants or contractors violates such obligations, it reserves the right to null and void all business dealings with said supplier, vendor, consultant or contractor immediately upon discovery.

The College seeks to build business relationships with firms who share our commitment to environmental stewardship and our work toward achieving a more socially just and equitable world.

- The College seeks business partners with a well-defined and demonstrated commitment to environmental sustainability and who will add value to the College's implementation of environmental sustainability goals and standards in this project.
- The College values the diversity of its campus community and is committed to fostering equity and inclusion in the planning, design, construction, and operation of capital projects.

Swarthmore College is located 11 miles southwest of Philadelphia PA. The 425-acre arboretum campus supports 1.8 million GSF of academic, residential, athletics, and administrative buildings, adjacent to the Town Center in the Borough of Swarthmore (see Campus Map). The College is served by commuter rail service (SEPTA's Media Wawa line). Hotel accommodations are available at the Inn at Swarthmore. Limited parking for visitors is available near the Service Building, where the facilities management office is located.

2. Statement of Purpose

Swarthmore College invites your firm to submit a proposal to provide planning services, related to the Campus Master Plan and Library Master Plan at Swarthmore College. The Campus Master Plan will develop a planning concept for the campus improvements to be implemented in the next decade. Concurrent with the Campus Master Plan, the consultant will work with the College to develop a Library Master Plan that will define the phased renovation of the McCabe Library. The form of contract will be the College's Standard Services Agreement, attached.

3. Project Description

See Attached "Campus and Library Master Plan Scope"

4. Project Schedule

This consulting engagement is planned to take approximately 10-14 months to complete. Proposals shall include a proposed schedule based on the tasks outlined and any additional tasks recommended by the proposer.

Proposers shall assume time is of the essence and incorporate information from the Campus Calendar (below) in their proposed schedule. The campus calendar may impact the project schedule. For example, Facilities staff are generally not available during the Administrative Winter Break. Faculty may not be available during fall, winter and spring breaks, and may have limited availability during the summer months, student advising, exam periods, and prior to Commencement.

In developing the proposed project schedule, be aware that College representatives have busy schedules so meetings need to be planned with sufficient lead times to find a time and date that all College representatives are available. Assume that meetings with the working groups and other College representatives bringing expertise to the process need to be scheduled at least one month in advance. Meetings with the advisory committee and town hall meetings for students or faculty and staff need to be scheduled at least two months in advance.

Campus Calendar Dates	Start Date	End Date
Start of Fall Semester	Sep 3, 2024
Fall Break	Oct 11, 2024	Oct 21, 2024
Final Exams	Dec 15, 2024	Dec 21, 2024
Academic Winter Break	Dec 21, 2024	Jan 21, 2025
Administrative Winter Break	Dec 21, 2024	Jan 6, 2025
Start of Spring Semester	Jan 21, 2025
Spring Break	Mar 7, 2025	Mar 17, 2025
Final Exams	May 8, 2025	May 15, 2025
Commencement	May 25, 2025
Alumni Weekend	May 30, 2025	Jun 1, 2025
Start of Fall Semester	Sep 2, 2025

In scheduling meetings, assume all meetings with College groups are hybrid and held on campus. The consultant's major presenters shall meet with the College representatives in-person. The consultant will schedule a hybrid video conference link for each meeting. Supporting consultant personnel may join meetings remotely. College representatives will be encouraged to attend meetings in person, but will have the option to join remotely if their schedule requires. Campus master plan programming meetings with departments and programs may be by video conference as the consultant may schedule a series of these meetings back-to-back.

The consultant's project manager shall meet each week with the College's project manager for a 30-60 minute progress update on project management issues. This meeting may be by video conference.

5. Selection Criteria

The following criteria will be considered in evaluating the proposals submitted:

- Demonstrated understanding of the project and its significant challenges and opportunities
- Assignment and commitment of key staff members with relevant success on similar projects, particularly at peer institutions; history of prior work with major sub-consultants, if applicable
- Project management approach, including proposed schedule with milestone dates/events, and clear articulation of interface with College Facilities staff and working groups
- Fee Proposal
- Acceptance of the terms and provisions of the Consulting Services Agreement
- Firm attributes, especially alignment with the College's values regarding environmental sustainability and diversity, equity and inclusion, including specific examples relevant to this project
- Quality of Proposal, including organization, clarity, completeness and appropriateness of client references
- Relevant client references

Contract award shall be based on the firm judged by the College, at its sole discretion, to be the best qualified and demonstrate the potential to provide the best value to render the contemplated services.

Award of contract to one Proposer does not mean that other proposals lacked merit, but that, all factors considered, the selected proposal was deemed by the College to provide the highest quality and best value for the College.

Swarthmore College reserves the right to short-list the Proposers. These short-listed Proposers may be required to attend an interview with the College, including a presentation by the Proposer along with a question and answer session.

6. Submission Requirements

By submitting a proposal in response to Swarthmore College's Request for Proposal, the individual signing the proposal agrees that (1) they are authorized to submit this proposal on behalf of the Proposer and (2) Proposer has carefully read the Standard Services Agreement provided herein and intends to be legally bound thereby. Any dispute of the Standard Services Agreement must be presented in conjunction with the Proposer's initial proposal by the "Proposals Due" date in the schedule above. Proposer expressly understands that if selected, the Consulting Services Agreement will apply and will not be subject to negotiation or modification by Proposer.

Acknowledgement and Intent to Respond

Proposers are asked to acknowledge receipt of the RFP and their intent to respond no later than the date noted above, by email to the RFP Agent. Should the proposer subsequently decide to decline the RFP, this decision should be communicated by email to the RFP Agent.

Submission Summary

An electronic copy of the proposal is due on the date and time noted above, by email to the RFP Agent. The Proposer shall email a PDF file to the RFP Agent. In the event a PDF file is too large to submit via email, the Proposer must contact the RFP Agent immediately (and before the due date & time) to make other arrangements for submission.

The College has not placed a page limit on these proposals but proposers are encouraged to be succinct. Reviewers will consider the ease of reviewing the proposal and learning the key distinguishing aspects as part of their evaluation of the proposal's quality.

Format and Contents

Proposals shall be in digital media (PDF) and formatted for printing to 8.5" x 11" paper at minimum 11-point font. All pages shall be numbered.

The proposal shall be comprised of the following sections, in this order:

- Cover Page
- Letter of Interest
- Project Understanding
- Project Management Approach
- Fee Proposal
- Client References

Cover Page

The cover page shall include the complete project name, project number and RFP number, as shown on this RFP, and shall include the name and address of the firm submitting the proposal, the name, email address, and telephone number of the primary company representative to be contacted regarding the proposal, and the date of submission.

Letter of Interest

A Letter of Interest, on company letterhead, shall be signed by an authorized representative of the company capable of entering into a legally binding agreement. Highlight the prime qualifications of the firm and the skills and expertise which differentiate the firm from competitors. Describe the firm's mission and culture, including its alignment with Swarthmore College's commitments to environmental sustainability and diversity, equity and inclusion. Include a statement that, if selected, the Proposer accepts the proposed terms and provisions of the Consulting Services Agreement included in the RFP, or has included any requested modification(s) to the Agreement as part of the proposal. Acceptance of the form Agreement is considered a significant factor in selection of the Consultant. Indicate acknowledgement of any addenda received during the RFP period.

Project Understanding
Describe the significant challenges and opportunities in the project and describe the design team's proposed approach to address these unique aspects of the project. Identify special expertise to be applied or other differentiators which would be of value to the College in this project.

Project Management Approach
Include the proposed schedule for services, milestone dates, critical path tasks and parallel activities. Identify major decisions required to complete this commission and the proposed number of meetings. Provide an organization chart listing key personnel and their relationship to each other and to the College and sub-consultants, if any. Describe the relevant experience of key personnel and their distinguishing qualifications for this commission. Include short resumes for each key team member.

Fee Proposal
Include the following:

- Fee limit with invoicing to be on a time and materials basis to accomplish the scope of services described, broken down by phase and discipline, with subtotals for each row and column. See attached sample template
- Hourly rates for proposed team member roles, including sub-consultants, if any
- Not-to-exceed budget for reimbursable expenses, by phase

Client References
Provide three (3) client references related to this scope of work, including project name and date completed, contact name, email address and phone number. All references shall be for clients served within the last five (5) years; references for senior staff in facilities management in higher education or non-profit organizations are preferred. For each reference, list the project characteristics which relate to this assignment and the role of each proposed team member in the project. Provide a photo and short description of the referenced project if this was not included in the previous qualifications submission.

7. General Information

Communication Between Swarthmore and Suppliers
Swarthmore has designated a single-point-of-contact for all matters related to this RFP ("RFP Agent"), as identified on the cover page and repeated below. All suppliers' communications with Swarthmore concerning this RFP must be directed to the RFP Agent via email only. All Swarthmore communications with the suppliers concerning this RFP will be issued by the RFP Agent and directed to the suppliers' single point of contact list on the cover page who will be identified as "Supplier Representative."

RFP Agent:
Christopher Kane,
Director of Procurement
Email: ckane1@swarthmore.edu

All communications between Swarthmore and the suppliers during this RFP will:

- reference the RFP # and/or title;
- clearly state the purpose of the communication; and
- be submitted to RFP Agent or the Supplier Representative, as the case may be, in writing via email to the designated email addresses.

Under no circumstances are proposers, including third party firms or their staff, to contact other College staff, faculty or any related constituency for purposes associated with the RFP, including but not limited to, obtaining or providing information. Proposers failing to comply with this requirement may be disqualified.

Interpretations, Discrepancies and Omissions

Proposers shall carefully examine the RFP. Should any firm find discrepancies or omissions in this RFP or be in doubt as to the content or meaning of any aspect of this document, the firm should direct inquiries and/or requests for clarification of the documents, specifications or the process as a whole to the RFP Agent.

All such questions or requests for clarification regarding the RFP shall be directed, via email, to the RFP Agent, no later than the date and time noted above. Questions shall be submitted in Microsoft Word or Google Docs. Proposers are advised that the College reserves the right to use its best judgment in choosing to respond or not respond to any question(s) received after the above cutoff date for questions.

Clarifications or changes to the RFP, in the form of written addenda, will be sent via emailed PDF file by the College to all proposers of record, who have obtained RFP documents, as the College deems it appropriate and necessary to do so. The College reserves the right to waive any and all proposal technicalities, formalities or informalities at any time prior to or after the date of receipt of proposals as it deems appropriate and in the College's best interest. Verbal changes to the RFP are not valid unless confirmed by written addenda.

Late Proposals

It is the Proposer's responsibility to ensure that their proposal is received via email by the RFP Agent no later than the date and time specified in this RFP. Proposals may be submitted at any time prior to this date and time. Late proposals will not be considered and will be returned unopened.

Errors in Proposals

- Proposers are responsible for the accuracy of their Proposals. Respondents may withdraw or modify a proposal if notice of withdrawal or modification is received by the RFP Agent before the latest time specified for the receipt of proposals.
- In the event of a discrepancy between written words and figures, the amount stated in written words will govern.
- The College reserves the right to contact any and all firms to verify information included in their Proposal and to clarify any questions regarding the information submitted in the Proposal, in order to ascertain whether the Proposal received is both responsive and responsible. The College also reserves the right to waive any formalities, informalities and technicalities in evaluation of the Proposals as are deemed appropriate, necessary and in the College's best interest.

Submission of Proposals

- Oral, telephonic, faxed or mailed Proposals are invalid and will not be given consideration.
- Submissions shall be by digital media (PDF) only, emailed to ckane1@swarthmore.edu.
- Proposals must comply with all Submission Requirements stated in this RFP.
- All costs incurred by the responding firms associated with the preparation, submission, presentation of proposals and attendance at meetings, including, but not limited to, costs related to transportation, meals, lodging, and other related expenses, if applicable, will be the sole responsibility of the respondent(s) and will not under any circumstances be reimbursed by the College.
- Proposals will only be accepted from firms solicited by Swarthmore College in this Request for Proposal.

Award or Rejection of Proposal

The contract will be awarded to the firm best meeting the needs and interests of Swarthmore College, provided it is in the best interest of the College to award the contract.

Conditional proposals will not be accepted.

If the firm, to whom an award is made shall fail to execute the contract as specified, the award may be annulled and the contract awarded to the second most responsive and responsible firm, and such firm shall fulfill every stipulation included herein, as if the firm were the original party to whom the award was made, or again, the College may at that point reject any and/or all of the proposals as its best interest may require.

Swarthmore College Reserved Rights

Swarthmore College reserves the right to reject any and all proposals, at any time, whenever such is in the best interest of the College. A firm's proposal may be rejected for one or more of, but not limited to, the following reasons:

- Failure of the firm(s) to submit a timely proposal.
- Failure of the firm(s) to provide the required information.
- Failure of the firm(s) to respond to the request for clarification or presentation.
- Failure of the firm to follow the prescribed RFP preparation, submission and response format instructions.
- Collusion among or between firms.
- Unbalanced proposals; that is, proposals in which the prices quoted for some work is out of proportion to those quoted for other work.
- Lack of responsibility on the part of the firm.
- Financially unstable firm.
- Failure of the firm to successfully negotiate a contract.
- Submission of a proposal that does not meet the College's requirements as outlined herein.

The College reserves the right to reject any proposal if the evidence submitted by, or investigation of, such firm fails to satisfy the College that such firm is qualified to carry out the obligations of the contract herein.

Swarthmore College reserves the right to:

- Adopt any or all portions of the firm's Proposal to best serve the needs of the College.
- Modify or waive minor irregularities and technical defects in the firm's Proposal if deemed to be in the best interest of the College.
- Solicit best and final offers only from a short list of respondents as determined by the College at its sole discretion.
- Negotiate or modify any element of the Proposal to ensure that the best possible arrangement for achieving the stated purpose is obtained.

Disputes

Any disputes concerning a question of fact from this RFP which is not disposed of by agreement shall be decided by the RFP Agent or designee.

Relationship of the Form Agreement and Final Agreement

The relevant portions of the proposal, addenda and submissions required as a part of the proposal evaluation process will be incorporated in the final Agreement

The final Agreement shall be in the form and title of the Agreement included in the RFP. The final Agreement shall include any relevant attachments, such as clarifying correspondence and/or any other documents which may be required and mutually agreed upon and negotiated by the College and the successful firm.

Proposer Representation

Each Proposer, by making its proposal, represents that:

- The RFP, Consulting Services Agreement, and any other documents provided by Swarthmore, have been read and understood by the Proposer.
- The proposal is based on the scope of work and services required as expressed in the RFP.
- The proposal has been arrived at independently and is submitted without collusion with any other Proposer for this project.
- The contents of the proposal have not been disclosed by the Proposer, nor, to the best of its knowledge and belief, by any of its employees or agents to any person not an employee or agent of the Proposer, or its surety on any bond furnished herewith, and will not be disclosed to any such person prior to the opening of proposals.

- No attempt has been made or will be made to induce any person or firm not to submit a proposal.
- No inducements or kickbacks have been offered to, or received from, any other proposer in connection with their proposal.
- No payment, loan, subscription, advance, deposit of money, services, or anything of more than nominal value, present or promised has been conferred on or offered to any faculty or staff member of Swarthmore College having official responsibility for this procurement transaction.
- If required, the site has been visited.

Time Frame

The successful firm is expected to immediately begin the implementation of services expressed in this RFP, according to the schedule agreed upon by both parties, upon execution of the Agreement or other writing authorizing the start of work, unless otherwise directed by the College.

Warranty and Guarantee

In general, all firms and ultimately the successful firm awarded the contract, shall be responsible for the accuracy or validity of information provided to the College directly by the firm.

Other Agreements

If selected, the College, in its discretion, may require the Proposer to execute other standard agreements of Swarthmore College, including for licensing and data sharing, or any other appropriate Agreement consistent with this RFP.

Interview for Short-Listed Firms

Proposers selected for final evaluation may be invited to participate in an interview. Interviews shall be on the date listed in the RFP. [Interviews shall be at a date and time determined by the College, with as much advance notice as possible.] Key personnel are expected to attend the interview. Interviews may be virtual, using Zoom or an equivalent platform.

9. Attachments

A large number of background documents will be shared with the proposers as part of this RFP. These are the bulk of the documents that the consultant will need to do the work. It is not the College's expectation that the proposers will review all these documents at the proposal stage. Rather they are provided to give the proposers an understanding of the extent of background material they will work with. The College has additional documentation, that is not included here but will be shared with the consultant. This includes CAD floor plans of each floor of each building, CAD site plan, and Building Upgrade Study reports for each building being connected to the geoexchange system, similar to the report for the McCabe Library included in the attachments.
